

'Get Caught Reading' Competition

Thank you to everyone who entered our 'Get Caught Reading' competition - the photographs were all fantastic so it was very hard to judge. The winning photo came from Katie so well done to her.

Mothers' Day Lunches

We hope everyone enjoyed our Mothers' Day lunch last week – I know the children did! Congratulations to Chloe's mum who won the flowers in the raffle.

A date for the diary is Fathers' Day lunches which will take place on Friday 17th June.

World Book Day

Last Thursday we celebrated 'World Book Day'. The children came to school dressed as a character of their choice.

Easter Egg Competition

To give you a little bit of advance notice, we are holding an egg decorating competition in the lead up to Easter. We are asking children to decorate a hard-boiled egg (or eggs) at home and bring them into school on Wednesday 23rd March. The eggs will be on display for parents to have a look at before the Easter show on Thursday 24th March and a winner for each Class will be announced and prizes given out.

Playground 'Buddies'

Children in Class 2 have been appointed as 'buddies'. They have the responsibility to support other children at playtimes if they need help playing a game or hurt themselves. They are doing a great job!

Breakfast and Tea Club Invoices

Could we please have any outstanding payments for Breakfast and Tea Club by Friday 11th March.
